

VACANCIES

Article 13th Collective Agreement and 12 - 15 - 39 - 40 of Workers' Statute

Vacancy: Position available in the company due to the resignation of a worker with an indefinite contract.

Vacancies among the administrative staff (group 3) will be occupied by workers from the same group and from the category immediately below.

Exception: head of administration and head of section.

Administrative assistants and telephone operators with 3 years of service in the category will be promoted to administrative officers. If there is no vacancy, they will continue as assistants but with officer remuneration.

Vacancies among general services staff (group 4) will be occupied by workers from the category immediately below, as long as they have the appropriate aptitude for the job to be filled.

Exception: Head of service.

In the case of a new available position, and whenever permanent staff cannot access these positions, preference will be given to staff with a part-time contract.
